CLAIM FOR PAYMENT UNDER SECTION 158 OF THE ROAD TRAFFIC ACT 1988

I am sorry you were involved in a road traffic accident recently. Unfortunately, the services of the first doctor to see you following a road traffic accident are chargeable under the National Health Service. All motor car insurance policies include cover for medical treatment necessary, caused by road accidents in these circumstances. The responsibility for ensuring the payment of the account below, rests with the driver of the vehicle at the time of the accident. If you were not the driver of the vehicle you should pass this account to the driver to either pay personally, or pass to his/her insurers.

Payments of such accounts do not constitute any admission of liability for the accident. This account is rendered under Section 158 of the Road Traffic Act 1988, and the fee of £20.00 per person is set by Parliament. This should be paid prior to examination at the surgery.
